BIOGRAPHY

Multi award-winning actress, Kathleen Gati was born and raised in Canada by Hungarian immigrants. Her father was a symphony conductor and her mother an opera singer, so performing was in her blood. She started acting when she was three, wrote, directed and starred in her first play at the age of eight. Studied ballet and acting till she was eighteen, then moved to New York to further her studies and pursue her career. After performing in dozens of plays on and Off Broadway, as well as working in numerous roles on television and film, Kathleen traveled to Hungary to shoot Goldberg Variations, for which she won Best Supporting Actress. She subsequently stayed on in Hungary for several years, starring in multiple films, television series and MOWs, winning additional awards. Her performance in Hungary's biggest hit of the '90s, We Never Die (Sose Halunk Meg) as well as The Actress and The Death, made her an extremely popular actress in Eastern and Central Europe. She returned to the states and has worked continuously in New York, Los Angeles and Canada.

Best known for her recurring roles on Fear The Walking Dead: Flight 462, Being Mary Jane, General Hospital, Alphas and 24. Other work includes Sunshine (Ralph Fiennes), The Future, Transformers: Dark Of The Moon, American Dream (premiering soon, as Michiel Huisman's mother), Trade, Igby Goes Down, ZigZag, Meet The Fockers, Little Birds and Lifeline. Series regular on the Drugstore, in pilot, Contingency and in animation series, Me Eloise with Tim Curry and Lynn Redgrave, plus dozens of Guest roles on Arrow, Fairly Legal, Leverage, Covert Affairs, The Mentalist, Weeds, Desperate Housewives, Cold Case, The League, Lie To Me, etc. She carries three passports, Canadian, USA and EU/Hungarian and speaks Hungarian, Russian, Spanish, French and some German (besides her native language, English). Currently lives in Los Angeles and is a member of SAG, AFTRA, ACTRA and BAFTA.
